H. D. Scott of Poultney Sues E. M. Bixby of Same Town.

Rutland, Dec. 17 .- A hearing in the case of W. H. Rowland of Poultney, trustee in the bankruptcy case of H. D. Scott of Poultney, vs. E. M. Bixby of the same village, was begun in the United States district court in this city yesterday morning before Judge Harland B. Howe of St. Johnsbury.

The witnesses examined included Miss Joanna Flynn, steongrapher for Referee in Bankruptcy E. H. O'Brien, before whom some evidence was taken pre-viously, and Mr. Scott. The trustee seeks to recover for the creditors $2,200, which, it is claimed, Mr. Bixby furnished Mr. Scott to pay an indebtedness to the Citizens National bank of Poultney of which Bixby was a director, the transaction coming two months before Scott filed his petition. The claim of Mr. Rowland is that the bank was given preference over other creditors. G. W. Platt is associated with Mr. Moloney as counsel for the trustee. W. H. Preston represents Mr. Scott and J. A-K Tablets For Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headsches properly to understand the causes which produce the affection" says Dr. J. W.
Ray of Blockton, Ala. Continuing, he says:
"Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose Anti-kamnia Tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One tablet everyone to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headaches of women."
